

Please leave NJ Do Not Call List AS IS. It is perfect. I can now pickup my phone and always have family or friends on the other end. I never have to slam the phone down on a telemarketer or interrupt my home life. People with whom I have previous business relationships with I have a don't call me rule. I'll call you if I need your services! Please leave everything the way it is.